“The Lord is my shepherd. I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the path of righteousness for his name sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For you are with me; Your rod and staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cups run over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me All the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”

God’s Garden

God looked around his garden and found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God’s garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain.

He knew that you would never, get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb, so he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered, ‘Peace be thine’.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn’t go alone,

For part of us went with you the day God called you home.
