Thank you, grandma, for the slow mornings, simple pleasures, and all the laughs/unconditional love. Queen Veronica Elizabeth McClure the 1st! Your physical presence will be missed, but your spirit will always be in my heart. My dear granny, I'm grateful to have witnessed your light. Without you, there would be no Nene! You taught me to be content with aging without losing my youth. You showed me that there is strength in what the world considers weak. My sweet, loving, funny, little lady. From this day forward, whenever I pet an animal, enjoy sweets/fruits, play games, listen to oldies, or watch my "stories", I'll think of you! I know you're even happier now, reunited with your loved ones. Just know you'll be missed. I'll carry you with me wherever I go, because your energy was bliss.

I love you forever, grandma.
I'll see you soon!
